d. When we use cookies

Cookies are created by your web browser when you visit our website www.moffatminerals.co.uk. Every time you go back to our website, your browser will send the cookie file back to the website's server. They improve your experience of using our website, for example, by remembering your preference settings so that you are presented with information likely to be most relevant to you, and by measuring your use of the website to enable us to continuously improve our website to ensure that it meets your needs. Cookies can also be used to show you relevant Moffat Minerals content on social media services such as Facebook - these are known as 'retargeting' or 'advertising' cookies.

If you visit our website as an anonymous visitor (e.g. you switch off cookies), we may still collect certain information from your browser, such as the IP address (an IP address is a number that can uniquely identify a computer or other internet device).

The Moffat Minerals website www.moffatminerals.co.uk contains hyperlinks to agents and other websites owned and operated by other organisations. These third-party websites have their own privacy policies, including policies on their use of cookies, and we urge you to review them. They will govern the use of personal information you submit or which is collected by cookies whilst visiting their websites. We cannot accept any responsibility or liability for the privacy practices of such third-party websites and your use of such websites is at your own risk.

What information Moffat Minerals collect about you

We only collect personal data relevant to the type of transactions you have with Moffat Minerals.

However other companies may advertise and/or sell Moffat Minerals products, we are not responsible for third-party selling agents who have their own privacy policies, and we urge you to review them. They will govern the use of personal information you submit or which is collected when purchasing through them or visiting their websites. We cannot accept any responsibility or liability for the privacy practices of such third-party websites and your use of such outlets or websites is at your own risk.

Facebook and other Social Media Sites

There are two ways to prevent social media use of your data, you can either update your preferences at Moffat Minerals by opting out of the relevant channel of communication or you can do this via the social media site:

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/help/568137493302217>

LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/help/linkedin/answer/62931>

Twitter: <https://business.twitter.com/en/help/troubleshooting/how-twitter-ads-work.html>

Updating your preferences with Moffat Minerals will not guarantee that you never see Moffat Minerals content on social media, since the social media site may select you based on other criteria and without your data having been provided by Moffat Minerals.

Where legally required

We will also comply with legal requests where disclosure is required or permitted by law (for example to government bodies for tax purposes or law enforcement agencies for the prevention and detection of crime, subject to such bodies providing us with a relevant request in writing).

Your data is not processed outside the UK.

Breach of privacy or data protection

In the event a breach of privacy or breach of data protection occurs individuals and any necessary authorities will be notified promptly and action taken to rectify the breach.

How long will Owners / Proprietors of Moffat Minerals keep your information

We will hold your information on our systems for as long as is necessary for the relevant activity, for example we will keep a record of your purchase for 10 years to comply with HMRC rules.

If you request that we stop sending you marketing materials we will keep a record of your contact details and appropriate information to enable us to comply with your request not to be contacted by us.

Where you contribute material to us, e.g. user generated content we will only keep your content for as long as is reasonably required for the purpose(s) for which it was submitted unless otherwise stated at the point of generation. All personal data is stored securely and access is limited to the minimum number of relevant staff. It is deleted when no longer relevant by burning or electronic deletion, is never shared with third parties, and is available to you at any point should you wish to see it.
